Homework

How are the AMSI cornerstones linked to homework?

Confidence through the completion of independent learning.

Aspiration in allowing yourself to go above and beyond.

Resilience in attempting the challenge, and seeking the necessary help.

Respect by completing the learning set by your teacher.

From Monday 20th September 2021, we have a new system in place to support your successful completion of all homework.

KS3 Homework Support

Where: Canteen

When: 14:15 - 15:10
Monday - Friday

A dedicated space to complete your homework.

Staff will be available to support with your homework and studies.

If you want to attend, make sure that your parents/carers have given you permission by signing in your planner.

KS4 Prep

Monday - Friday

A dedicated space to complete your homework.

Staff will be available to support with your homework and studies.

If you want to attend, make sure that your parents/carers have given you permission by signing in your planner.

What do you need to do?

- You will record your homework in your student planner.
- You will use ClassCharts to check your homework deadlines and any links.
- You will ask if you do not understand the homework assigned.
- If you need help or a place to work, you will get permission from your parents/carers to attend KS3 Homework Support/KS4 Prep.
- You will complete your homework to be best of your ability.
- You will make your best effort to catch up on any homework missed.

What is ClassCharts and how can I use it?

You can access ClassCharts via the school website using the STUDENTS tab and then Homework.

What happens if you do NOT do your homework?

- If your homework is incomplete, not of an appropriate standard or not attempted then you will be issued with a D1 point and will have to attend KS3 Homework Support/KS4 Prep the next day for at least 30 minutes.
- If you fail to attend the KS3 Homework Support/KS4 Prep, you will be issued with D2 points which is a lunchtime detention the next day.

What will we do?

- We will remind you to record your homework in your student planner.
- We will set you quality homework and post it onto classcharts.
- We will support you in the KS3 Homework Support/KS4 Prep if you need help or a place to work.
- We will share examples of excellent work across the school on a Wall of Fame as well as the website.
- We will award Aspiration Cornerstone points for homework that goes beyond expectations.
- We will have a raffle draw each half term - details on the next slide.
- If two or more homework assignments from a subject are missed your teacher will contact home.

The Raffle Draw

- Every time that you attend on a voluntary basis you will receive a raffle ticket these will be collected throughout the term.
- At the the end of every half term there will be a raffle draw with prizes.

Homework Wall of Fame

- Subject teachers will be on the lookout for excellent work which we will display.
- Raffle tickets will also be awarded for every piece of work that is shared on the Wall of Fame by the teachers.
